Professional Experience

- On joining Griffins Lawyers in January 2004 Ian worked closely with senior partner Greg Griffin on various commercial and civil litigation matters including property, leasing and financial transaction disputes and a number of sports related matters. These matters were conducted in the various courts of South Australia as well as the Federal Court of Australia and the Supreme Court of Western Australia.
- Due to an increase in growth, Ian joined the Planning and Environment Group in May 2005 and since this time has been working closely with John McElhinney providing advices in relation to the Development Act, Local Government Act, and various related Acts, drafting enforcement notices and proceedings under the Development Act, participating in mediation conferences on behalf of Councils and developers alike and acting as Counsel as well as assisting Senior Counsel with appeals before both the Environment, Resources and Development Court and the Supreme Court of South Australia.
- Ian continues to work in Liquor Licensing as well and represents Applicants, Objectors, Landlords and Councils in liquor licensing and gaming licence matters before the Licensing Commission and Licensing Court. He also acts as instructing solicitor to Senior Council in liquor licensing matters in the Licensing Commission, Licensing Court and Supreme Court of South Australia.
- Ian has also acted for a number of property owners in Land Acquisition matters whose respective residences were compulsory acquired by the South Australian Government as part of the South Road upgrade.
